- 4) Select “Library Search” under the “Catalog” tab in the left column.
- 5) Choose the “Basic” tab in the upper-right corner and then type in the name/keywords of the item you are looking for into the search bar.

The screenshot shows the 'Library Search' interface. On the left, a sidebar includes 'Home', 'Catalog' (which is highlighted with a red box), 'Library Search', 'Resource Lists', 'My Info', and 'Help'. The main area is titled 'Top 10' and contains a search bar with 'Find' and 'Reset All' buttons, and search icons for 'Keyword', 'Title', 'Author', 'Subject', and 'Series'. A red box highlights the search bar area. On the right, there are tabs for 'Basic' (highlighted with a red box), 'Power', 'Visual', and 'Copy Categories', along with a 'How do I...' link.

Once you search for your keyword, a list of related items will appear in order of “relevance.” This can be changed using the “Sort by” box at the top.

The screenshot shows the search results for 'go talk'. The results are listed in a table with columns for item title, details, availability, and actions. A red box highlights the 'Sort By' dropdown set to 'Relevance' and the 'Go' button. The results include:

- Go Talk Express 32. (Details) Call # 100-211-28 Series: Go Talk Express 32

The GoTalk Express 32 is an easy to use yet powerful communication device. It is an ideal bridge between low-tech and dynamic display communication tools. It has all the features of the other Go Talk devices with additional features like surround-message LEDs for visual prompts and an option to add a 1.5 second auditory cue to any message. You can choose between two methods of operation: Standard and Express. The Standard method works like any GoTalk—touch a message key and it talks. With the Express method, users can link messages together to play in sequence. The Go Talk Express is also a fully functional one or two switch scanning device with many scanning capabilities, such as visual and auditory cueing.
